You are encouraged to remain with your child at events, or at least provide him/her with a method to contact you if your child is over 13 years of age. Younger children will need an adult who takes responsibility for them present throughout all events. CHEAHA assumes no liability for injuries or for children who are known to wander or need constant supervision. In the event of an injury or sudden illness, if we are unable to reach you, EMS could be called to save life or limb.

2022 – 2023 C.H.E.A.H.A. Membership and Responsibilities Statement

CHEAHA support fellowship is a distinctly CHRISTIAN Fellowship. Members must hold to the primary doctrines of the Christian Faith -

The Bible is the complete, inerrant and inspired Word of God; God is the one and only Living God; He exists in the forms of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit; the Virgin birth, absolute deity, and the sinless life of Jesus Christ; the death, burial and resurrection of Christ to provide salvation for sinners; the personal and bodily return of Jesus Christ to Earth; the bodily resurrection of all men (some to eternal life and some to everlasting punishment).

We believe that God has ordained the family as the foundational institution of human society. Marriage is the uniting of one natural born man and one natural born woman in covenant commitment for a lifetime. We do not support in any way lifestyle choices that are contrary to the Bible, including LGBTQIA+.

We believe that children, from the moment of conception, are a blessing and heritage from God.

We believe that all true believers have been regenerated by the Holy Spirit and been made children of God and thereby constitute a spiritual unity of believers, the Body of Christ, regardless of organizational affiliation.

I understand and agree to support CHEAHA's Membership and Responsibilities statement.

2022 – 2023 C.H.E.A.H.A. Code of Conduct

One of the reasons CHEAHA exists is to provide a fun and safe environment for both our children and parents to socially bond with one another in a Christian atmosphere. To foster that atmosphere, CHEAHA requests that all members, along with any guests that are brought to activities, maintain Christian standards in conversation, courtesy, kindness, honesty, morality, and modest attire, showing respect to each other, not in an attitude of legalism but in Christian love.

Please dress modestly to all CHEAHA events. Shorts, skirts, and dresses should be a modest length and not show cleavage. Pants should be properly fitted and worn around the waist. Please wear appropriate garments underneath to maintain modesty during participation in activities. CHEAHA does not condone bullying, name calling, rudeness, poor sportsmanship, or the use of vulgar or obscene language. Should this happen at any CHEAHA event, adult chaperones will intervene and pull the child aside and warn him or her that the behavior is inappropriate and needs to stop. If said behavior persists, the child will be separated from the group and parents will be called to pick up the child if they are not present at the event. At the sole discretion of the CHEAHA Executive Committee, when violations are deemed egregious, the family's CHEAHA membership may be suspended indefinitely with no refund.

For matters such as illegal drug activity, sexual promiscuity, abortion, robbery or other misconduct deemed inappropriate by the Executive Committee of CHEAHA, immediate suspension of the family's CHEAHA membership, indefinitely and without refund could result. Members found to be out of harmony with the Scriptural principles of work and life may be removed whenever the general welfare or the reputation of Jesus Christ and/or CHEAHA is diminished.

I understand and agree to support CHEAHA's Code of Conduct. _____
